

Data privacy Consent Notice

HILLBROOK
Expatriate Tax Solutions

Hillbrook Expatriate Tax Solutions (hereinafter referred to as: “Hillbrook”) will perform certain immigration and tax services (“Services”), commissioned by your employer, for you and, if applicable, for your spouse or spousal equivalent and other family members (each referred to as “you”).

In performing Services for you, Hillbrook may process data relating to you, including sensitive personal data such as race or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious beliefs, trade union membership, physical or mental health, sexual life, criminal proceedings, social security numbers or other government-issued identification numbers and financial account information, in connection with preparing your tax returns, preparing an application for a work and/or residence permit, or performing tax advisory services. In doing so, Hillbrook will comply with applicable privacy laws. Hillbrook will not collect data unless it is necessary in order to provide the Services. Hillbrook will only collect sensitive data if this is required for performing Services for you. For example, you might provide data in relation to tax deductions for a religious charity. Hillbrook is only interested in claiming the correct tax deduction. However, the data required to do this may fall into one of the sensitive data categories. Another example, if your name would be “David Johnson” and you advise that your spouse is “Donald O’Connor” so an appropriate claim can be made for spouse tax relief, this information would be sensitive data as it may indicate your sexual orientation.

To the extent necessary to provide the Services, you hereby authorize Hillbrook to:

- > obtain from your personal data in relation to you including, if applicable, to your spouse and other family members, which could, for example, include your income (collectively your Data);
- > disclose Data to your employer;
disclose Data to relevant authorities (for example the Dutch tax authorities or the IND, depending on the nature of the Services being provided to you);
- > disclose Data to Hillbrook’s third party service providers (who are under contractual obligation to maintain confidentiality and only disclose Data as directed by Hillbrook) to assist Hillbrook with the provision of the Services.
- > Retain adequate documentation of the file in line with applicable laws and professional standards after termination of the Services.

If you provide Hillbrook with personal data relating to other family members or your spouse, you represent that you have explicitly informed them of the potential processing of their (sensitive) personal data and have all necessary authority and/or have obtained all necessary consents from those family members to enable Hillbrook to process their personal data. This consent notice shall be governed by the laws of The Netherlands.

Your privacy rights

We kindly inform you about the rights you have and the influence that you can exercise on the processing of your personal data by Hillbrook. Data privacy Consent Notice

HILLBROOK
Expatriate Tax Solutions

Please take into consideration that we will verify the identity of anyone exercising any of the rights below. We try to answer all requests within 4 weeks after receipt. Although when faced with an unusual high number of these requests we will extend this period by the maximum allowed period. You will be informed about receipt of your request and the expected throughput time.

When requests involve an unusually high amount of information or requires manual validation Hillbrook retains the right (as defined by the GDPR) to request an inquiry fee.

View, rectification and erasure:

You have the right to view which personal data we process about you. Subsequently you may request that this personal data will be rectified or erased. Your request to erase your personal data might terminate any agreement you have with us, of course we will inform you about this.

Limitation of processing:

You have the right to request that we limit the processing of your personal data. For example if the data is no longer correct, the processing is unlawful, we no longer need your personal data, or pending a decision on the objection that you made against processing your data.

Right to object:

You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data.

Data transferability:

If you had given us permission to process your data and when processing was carried out, you have the right to receive your personal data from us in a structured, common and machine-readable form, so that you can transfer it to another party.

Withdrawal of consent:

If we have obtained your data for a specific purpose on the basis of your consent, you may withdraw this consent at any time. The withdrawal of the consent does not affect the legality of the processing before the withdrawal.

Submitting a complaint:

Do you have complaints about how we handle your personal data? You have the right to submit your complaints tot the Dutch Data Protection Authority ('Autoriteit Persoonsgegevens').

Acknowledgement:

The undersigned acknowledged and agrees to the terms contained in this consent notice, which shall be effective for the whole period Hillbrook is engaged to provide services to him / her.
